

NEW SOUTH QUARTER, CROYDON

Architect
Stanford Eatwell & Associates

Project Architect
Barratt Kent

Client	Barratt Kent
Main Contractor	Barratt Kent
Axtershield Installer	Waterproofing - Tilbury Contracts Ltd Landscaping – Ground Control
Type of Development	Mixed-use scheme incorporating 790 dwellings, commercial space, business start-up units for Croydon Business Ventures, a nursery and a doctor's surgery.
The concept	New South Quarter is an exciting urban village in the heart of Croydon. It is not only a great place to live, it is a great place to work and it has everything you would expect to find in a brand new community. NSQ is contemporary in design, creating the ultimate urban village. There are over 700 studio, 1, 2 and 3 bedroom apartments in modern buildings set around their own courtyards and gardens.
Roofing	Various warm and inverted roof constructions including intensive green roofs to the internal courtyards.
Size of roof	9,000 m ² Inverted of which 2,400 m ² of landscaping and 7,000 m ² warm roof with tapered insulation.
Axter materials	WILOTEKT-PLUS and BAC CANALIS reservoir board to inverted podium decks and green roof areas; EXCEL HRS / HYRANGER SPOT ADH self adhesive system, HYRANGER 25/25 TS vapour control layer, AXTEP walkway membrane, Axter tapered thermal insulation, trims, rainwater outlets, filter layers and paving slab supports.

For further information please call 01473 724056, email info@axterltd.co.uk or submit an enquiry through the Axter website.